Country, Place	Zambia, Lusaka
Profession	Media educator
Start of commitment	January 2019 or by agreement
Duration	3 years
Content	Zambia belongs to the group of the poorest countries in the world (HDI 141/187). As a consequence, a majority of the population lives in tough situations without sufficient access to health care, education, social welfare and protection of their rights. HIV/AIDS has further worsened the situation by bringing the traditional social system to the brink of collapse. 66.2% of the population is below the age of 25 years.
Partner Organisation	The main activities of ECR (Expanded Church Response http://www.ecrtrust.org/) are capacity building and empowerment of communities, families and individuals as well as to provide services to the communities including education, health, food and nutrition and economic strengthening. ECR works with over 100,000 in and out of school vulnerable children and youth. Most of the school going children go to community or public schools, where sometimes teachers lack training in key teaching methodologies, especially using ICT (Information Communication Technologies).
Activities	As a COMUNDO Co-Worker you will support primarily the 10 staff members and 100 teachers from selected pilot project schools with a total of about 11'500 beneficiaries. You identify specific ICT needs and adequate tools that will be used in ICT training; you develop manuals, ICT applications and guidelines; you train the staff and teachers in the usage of ICT innovations and in different teaching methodologies and you act as an advisor and mentor for staff and teachers.
Objectives of the post	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Integration of ICT and new technologies at the selected pilot project schools is increased. • Project members have increased their capacity and competencies in ICT. • Project members are trained as TOT's (Teacher of Teachers) in ICT. • Teachers master and apply a wider range of didactic and pedagogical methods.
